

ARTS TASMANIA NEWS

2011 AMPLIFIED SHOWCASING PROGRAM

Amplified, the contemporary music industry development event, will be delivered by Contemporary Music Services Tasmania in partnership with arts@work, the industry development arm of Arts Tasmania, between 15 and 21 August 2011. The Amplified Showcasing Grant program supports showcasing opportunities developed by musicians and promoters to best suit their music practice.

The Minister for the Arts, the Hon Lara Giddings MP, has announced the recipients of the Amplified Showcasing Grants Round. Funding totalling $20,000 has been allocated to eight recipients in support of Tasmanian contemporary music.

Salamanca Arts Centre Ltd

$3,000

Sound to Light at the Long Gallery - an exploration in collaboration between artists practicing in sound and light - curated by Jason James and Chris Norman (313RGB).

Dario Phillips

$2,995

Dario Philips will present the Saturday showcase as part of One Fine Weekend! featuring artists including Tiger Choir (Hobart), The Stoics (Launceston) and Hayley Couper (Hobart).

Hobart City Council

$2,700

The Hobart City Council will present a youth music showcase, of emerging artists aged from 12 to 25, including Bring Sophy to Me (Tarooma High School) and the KramerJanes (Claremont College).

Wide Angle Tasmania

$2,840

Wide Angle Tasmania will present a Music Video Showcase and a DJ/VJ Seminar with Acumen.

Republic Bar and Cafe

$2,649

The Republic Bar and Café will present the Friday showcase as part of One Fine Weekend! featuring artists such as The Little Cubas (Launceston), Samuel Cole and the Mornings (Hobart) and Invisible Boy (Launceston).

The Colemans

$2,631

'Stories at the Theatre' will see The Colemans, Lincoln Le Fevre and Dean Stevenson present their own songs that are closest to their hearts. Between songs, artists will engage the crowd through telling the stories which surround their songs.

Nicholas Orme

$1,825

Nicholas Orme, of Warp Magazine, will present the Sunday showcase as part of One Fine Weekend! featuring artists such as The Ray Guns (Hobart), Sole Stickers (Launceston) and Chi-Roh (Hobart).

Edge Radio 99.3fm

$1,360

Edge Radio 99.3fm, will deliver a broadcast live from the Elizabeth St Mall incorporating performances of Tasmanian artists including James Dilger (Launceston), The Colemans (Reserche Bay) and Sarah Everett (Hobart).